

CdLS Foundation

Cornelia de Lange Syndrome Foundation, Inc.
Reaching Out, Providing Help, Giving Hope

Cornelia de Lange Syndrome (CdLS) National Scientific and Educational Symposiums

June 24, 2010 · Dallas, TX

Schedule

- 8:00 Breakfast and sign in
9:00 Clinical Overview
9:30 Research Overview
10:00 CdLS Postdoctoral Research Fellow Talk
10:30 Lessons from Zebrafish and Mice
11:00 Examining Relations Between Challenging Behavior and Parenting Stress
11:30 Sleep Disturbance in CdLS
Noon Behavior Issues in CdLS
12:30 Lunch and poster viewing

Scientific track

- 1:30 Molecular Insights of Cohesin
2:00 Cohesin
2:30 Searching for Additional CdLS Genes
3:00 Cohesin Mapping in Human Cells
3:30 Dental Procedures and Anesthesia in CdLS
3:50 Characterization of Thrombocytopenia in CdLS
4:15 Prenatal Findings in CdLS

Education Track

- 1:30 Phenotype and Autism in Individuals with CdLS
2:00 Speech and Language Issues in CdLS
2:30 National CdLS Educational Survey Results
3:00 Needs of Siblings of Adults with CdLS
3:30 Physical Therapy in CdLS
4:00 Survey Results: Parent Expectations and Experiences with Support Groups
4:30 Both groups reconvene for wrap-up
5:00 Symposium conclude

Where: Dallas/Addison Marriott Quorum, 14901 Dallas Parkway.

When: Thurs., June 24, 8 a.m. – 5 p.m.

Fees: $200 includes breakfast, lunch and CMEs/CEUs. $75 for students.

Contact: Call 800-753-2357 or email familysupport@CdLSusa.org for a brochure and registration.

The Univ. of Texas Southwestern Medical Center is a joint sponsor of this activity and the CME provider.

CEUs for genetic counselors, education professionals and speech - language pathologist are expected.

UT SOUTHWESTERN
MEDICAL CENTER